Configure CAS Settings for a JD FlexApp

When you add a FlexApp to Unite for a JD or LLB degree, you can configure settings to manage the LSAC Credential Assembly Service (CAS) for international candidates. You can also select whether your school will waive the LSAT requirement for candidates who submit applications. The following table provides a description of each JD CAS setting for international candidates.

Setting	Description
Accepted	The Accepted setting indicates your school accepts but does not require AACRAO evaluations with CAS reports for international candidates.
Do Not Participate	The Do Not Participate setting indicates your school does not accept AACRAO evaluations with CAS reports for international candidates.
Recommended	The Recommended setting indicates your school prefers but does not require AACRAO evaluations with CAS reports for international candidates.
Required	The Required setting indicates your school requires a full AACRAO evaluation with CAS reports for international candidates.

Once an application cycle end date expires, you cannot edit CAS settings for the application.
